SAP Support Assessment Process

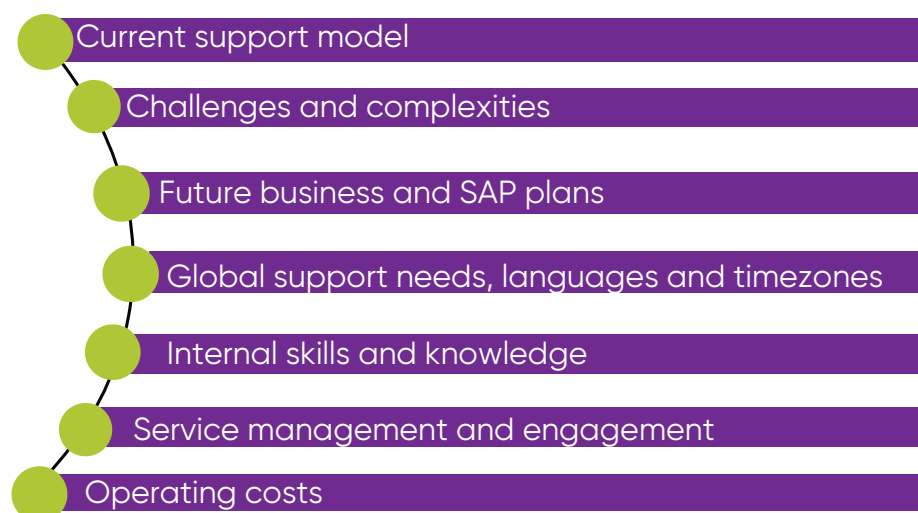

To understand a clients' existing SAP support service, Birchman's undertakes a thorough 3-stage assessment process.

In the process of our assessment, we rely on client conversations and a questionnaire to gain insights into the positive aspects and challenges associated with the current support processes.

Our goal is to identify areas for improvement and enhance the services provided to end users. Our 3-stage process includes:

Our 3-stage process includes:

- Requirements – We perform a workshop with you to understand your current model, challenges, and future requirements. This includes looking at your global support needs and aspirations to develop inhouse skills.
- Review – Here we review your requirements and understand what would work well and benefit your organisation. Some further questions and meetings may be required to ensure a full understanding of your needs.
- Recommendations – We provide a comprehensive guide with recommendations for ongoing support needs, sizing, model delivery approach, and indicative pricing.
